SUNDAY 13TH JULY 2025

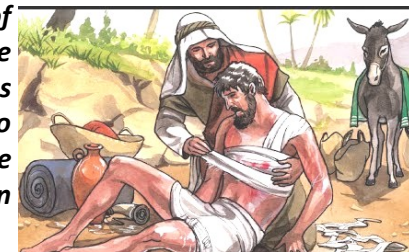

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME -YEAR C

Parish Mass Book Page 108, Order of Mass P6, The Nicene Creed P11

Parables are never what they seem. They have a clever way of causing confusion and forcing you to figure out what is really going on beneath the surface. Today the Samaritan, an outcast, is made the hero of the story. This would have caused outrage amongst those who heard the parable.

The oil and the wine have a significant part to play too, as the priest and Levite may have had such items with them for making sacrifices in the Temple. It is however, the Samaritan who offers correct worship to God as he uses the oil and wine to clean the man's wounds. Jesus spoke about a God who was more concerned with compassion than the constraints of the Temple. Look at what the Samaritan does for the man on the road: bound his wounds, poured oil, took him to an inn. They are all action words... the emphasis in this parable is on action and on compassion. The lawyer is concerned with the limits to 'love of neighbour', but there are no limits, no boundaries, no outsiders in God's Kingdom.

'Our prayer, our worship, our fasting are of little value to God if we have ignored those of God's children who suffer on the margins of our societies. We are Christians who follow the message of Jesus, not because we say "Lord, Lord"... it is in our compassion that we imitate God...who is compassion'

Annual Lourdes Mass:

This Sunday, 5.00pm Metropolitan Cathedral

All are warmly invited to the Annual Lourdes Mass at the Metropolitan Cathedral this Sunday at 5.00pm, with Archbishop Emeritus Malcolm presiding.

This is a special opportunity to pray together, seek Our Lady's intercession, and remember the pilgrims travelling to Lourdes—especially those seeking healing and strength. A lantern carrying parish petitions will be brought to the Mass before continuing on to Lourdes, where it will be placed at Our Lady's Shrine.

This year, we also give thanks for the 71st recognised miracle of Lourdes—the healing of Jack Traynor, a significant figure in our diocesan history. Members of Jack's family will be present at the Mass and some will join the diocesan pilgrimage.
