Following in the footsteps of St Lewis..

"The beginning is always today." ~Mary Shelley

As a team of flower lovers at Page Petal, spring is so much more than just the season before summer; it's a time when visible signs of growth outside encourage us to embrace new beginnings within ourselves. From days slowly getting brighter to buds swelling before bloom, these signs of spring are reminders that subtle changes can be signs of significant and beautiful growth ahead.

Congratulations to our reading stars this week..
