World Book Day—Thursday 6th March

.Thank you for all of the wonderful costumes that were created to celebrate World Book day yesterday. All of the children looked fabulous and it was great to hear why they had chosen their particular book character.

This week, the children have enjoyed writing a story for another child in school whom they gathered ideas from. However, the best part was seeing children from across school sharing these stories with one another

Lent

On Wednesday children from Y1 to 6 attended Mass and received ashes to mark the beginning of Lent, when we prepare for Easter. Parishioners at Church commented on how well the children joined in with the responses during Mass

From today, children will get the opportunity to take home a Lenten prayer bag for the night. It contains some suggested activities to do together with your child. Please can these be returned the following school day to enable as many children as possible to take the bags home.

Following in the footsteps of St Lewis..

"Lent is a time of going very deeply into ourselves... What is it that stands between us and God? Between us and our brothers and sisters? Between us and life, the life of the Spirit? Whatever it is, let us relentlessly tear it out, without a moment's hesitation." Catherine Doherty

Congratulations to our reading stars this week..
